Privacy

The Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation (the VCGLR) is committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information. The VCGLR endorses fair information handling practices and uses of information in compliance with its obligations under the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic). Personal information collected from you is only used for the purposes of the application for the licence or permit and Acts administered by the VCGLR.

Personal information is not disclosed to third parties unless required or authorised by law, or with your consent. As part of the application process information provided may be forwarded to and retained by Victoria Police.

Restricted club licence

Restricted club licence

A restricted club licence authorises the licensee to supply liquor on the licensed premises to a member of the club, an authorised gaming visitor or a guest of a member for consumption on the licensed premises.

Application fee

The application fee must be paid at the time of application. If your application is granted, the renewal fee for the following year is due annually on 31 December, irrespective of when the licence is granted. A renewal notice will be issued prior to this date detailing how to make payment to the State Revenue Office and the cost. There is no GST payable on this fee. Please refer to the liquor licence fees fact sheet for current details. The fee can be paid by cheque, money order or credit card. Cheques and money orders are to be made payable to Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation.

Declaration of the right to occupy the premises

For a licence to be issued, the applicant must have the right to occupy the premises. You will need to provide a declaration of your right to occupy the premises once the lease agreement has been executed and/or settlement has occurred for the sale of the property and/or you have otherwise acquired the legal right to occupy the premises (i.e. you are the freehold owner of the premises, the Certificate of Title is in your name or your name is on the executed lease agreement etc).

If you do not have the right to occupy when you lodge your application, you will need to provide a declaration form once you have acquired the right to occupy the premises. Please send or email the VCGLR your declaration form.

Declaration of associates

The purpose of the declaration of associates form is to identify an applicant's associates. The application must be accompanied by a completed declaration of associates form from the body corporate advising of its associates, and each director of the body corporate must complete this form separately.

Display of application

A public notice must be displayed at the premises to which this application relates. Once your application has been accepted for processing, the VCGLR will notify you or your representative in writing of the period the public notice must be displayed.

Important: You must NOT display your public notice until the VCGLR has advised you to do so.

After the display of notice has ended, you must then lodge a 'Statement of display' to the VCGLR certifying that you have undertaken a public notice of display. Please refer to the enclosed 'Guidelines for displaying public notices' and 'Statement of display'.

Maximum patron capacity

Patron capacity is the maximum number of patrons allowed on the licensed premises at any one time. A maximum patron capacity is required to be endorsed on the licence.

Please refer to the 'Maximum patron capacity' fact sheet for information on what documentation is required to be submitted for the VCGLR to determine a maximum patron capacity.

Planning permission

A copy of a planning permit from the local council (or responsible planning authority) which shows that you have planning permission to supply liquor as outlined in your application. For example, this should show that you have planning permission for the activities permitted by the licence type, the trading hours you are applying for and the area where you would like to supply liquor (red-line area). If a planning permit has not been granted at the time of application, you are required to provide a copy of an application for a planning permit made to the local council (or responsible planning authority).

Alternatively, you can provide evidence that a planning permit is not required to supply liquor as outlined in your application. For example, a letter from the local council (or responsible planning authority) or a copy of the relevant planning scheme.

Red-line plan

When a liquor licence is granted, it is for a defined area. The defined area indicates where liquor can be supplied and consumed and is shown by a red-line drawn on a plan of the premises. A plan is required to be submitted to the VCGLR as part of the application process and may also be required upon request at any time.

Restricted club licence

Current and Historical Company Extract – company applicants only

If you are applying for a licence in the name of a company you are required to provide a recent (no more than 90 days old) Current and Historical Company Extract from the Australian Security and Investments Commission (ASIC). Current and Historical Company Extract identifies the type, status, registered address, roles within the organisation, share structure, members and charges and documents lodged (current and historical) of organisations registered with ASIC.

When making a search application to ASIC, ensure that you specify that you require a Current and Historical Company Extract and not a Current Company Extract. A Current and Historical Company Extract identifies both current and historical information about the applicant, while the Current Extract identifies only current information.

You can purchase a Current and Historical Company Extract from the ASIC website at asic.gov.au.

Incorporated association information

If you are applying for a licence in the name of an incorporated association you must provide the certificate of incorporation, rules and minutes of the most recent meeting confirming the committee members.

Body corporate definition

A body corporate is an organisation which has a separate legal status to its members (i.e. it can own property, sue and be sued, and enter into contracts in its own name). Examples of body corporates include companies, incorporated associations, incorporated partnerships, municipal councils and co-operatives. Unincorporated clubs/associations and unincorporated partnerships are not body corporates. A minimum of one director must reside in Victoria unless a proposed nominee has been nominated.

Nominee definition

A body corporate may apply to the VCGLR for the approval of a person to be the nominee of the applicant. Once approved, the nominee then becomes liable as if they were the licensee or permit holder. The nominee will cease being a nominee if they cease to manage or control the licensed premises. Where this occurs, the licensee or permit holder needs to notify the VCGLR within 14 days. The nominee must reside in Victoria.

Lodgement checklist

Restricted club licence

This checklist details the documents required to accompany your application. Supplying these with your application will allow the Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation (VCGLR) to commence assessment of the application and can reduce processing time. Your application may be returned if the accompanying documents do not meet the requirements below.

The VCGLR may contact applicants to request additional documentation depending on the circumstances of their business. All forms and fact sheets referred to are available on the VCGLR website vcglr.vic.gov.au.

Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation

Liquor licensing fact sheet

Plans of licensed premises

When a liquor licence or BYO permit is granted, it is for a defined area where liquor can be supplied and/or consumed. This is shown by a red-line drawn on a plan of the premises. This plan needs to be submitted to the Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation (VCGLR) as part of the application process and may be required upon request at any time.

The plan of the premises must accompany applications for:

- a licence or BYO permit excluding a pre-retail licence or a BYO permit for party bus
- a variation of a licence or BYO permit that involves a change to the size or perimeter of the licensed premises
- a transfer of a licence or BYO permit if the current floor layout of the premises differs from the plan held at the VCGLR
- the relocation of a licence or BYO permit.

Four copies of the plan should be lodged when submitting an application form.

Why do I need to submit four copies of the plan?

Four copies are required to enable:

- a copy to be endorsed as an approved plan and retained by the VCGLR
- a copy to be provided to Victoria Police as part of the application process
- a copy to be provided to the relevant local council as part of the application process
- an approved copy to be provided to the applicant on the grant of an application.

Plan of premises should be given to the VCGLR if internal changes are made.

If a change is made to the internal area of licensed premises (for example, by adding or removing a particular structure), the licensee should submit an updated plan of the licensed premises.

Plan of the premises to be given to the VCGLR if requested

In addition to the above, section 101A of the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 provides that the VCGLR may at any time request that a licensee submit a current plan of a licensed premises.

What form should a plan take?

The VCGLR has specified that a plan must contain the following elements:

- be on suitably sized paper, minimum A4 size (graph paper is not acceptable)
- be drawn in ink and be neat and legible
- show the floor plan(s) of the owned or leased property
- outline in red the boundaries of the proposed area to be licensed
- if the proposed area does not follow a physical barrier (such as a wall), describe what is being used to separate the area
- show clear and consistent measurements on the plan
- include the address of the premises
- include a compass point showing north and names of the surrounding streets
- show basic functions or fixtures, for example, bar and dining area/kitchen area or in the case of a packaged liquor outlet, shelf areas where alcohol is displayed and the cash register is located
- a plan should be drawn to a suitable scale so that all elements above are clearly identified. A suggested scale is 1:100 (1 cm = 1m).

Restaurant and cafe licences and On-premises licences

If applying for kerbside trading, identify the area to be licensed and separately outline this area in red on the plan. The VCGLR will mark this area with an A.A on the approved copy of the plan. This area is referred to as the Authorised Area.

General licences

A general licence authorises the supply of liquor to patrons for consumption off the licensed premises, being a footpath or kerbside area. Therefore this area does not need to be identified on the plan.

Please note that licensees must comply with relevant local planning laws.

Where a proposed licensed or authorised area includes large outdoor spaces, a separate site plan must be provided that shows:

- the entire site including internal and external areas drawn to a suitable scale
- outline in red the proposed area that is to be licensed

- clear descriptions of how the proposed outdoor area will be distinguished (for example, fence, portable barriers, warning signs).

If the plan does not meet these requirements, the applicant will be required to resubmit the plan.

What am I required to do with my approved plan?

A copy of the approved plan must be kept on the licensed premises and must be available for inspection on request by a member of Victoria Police or a Compliance Inspector.

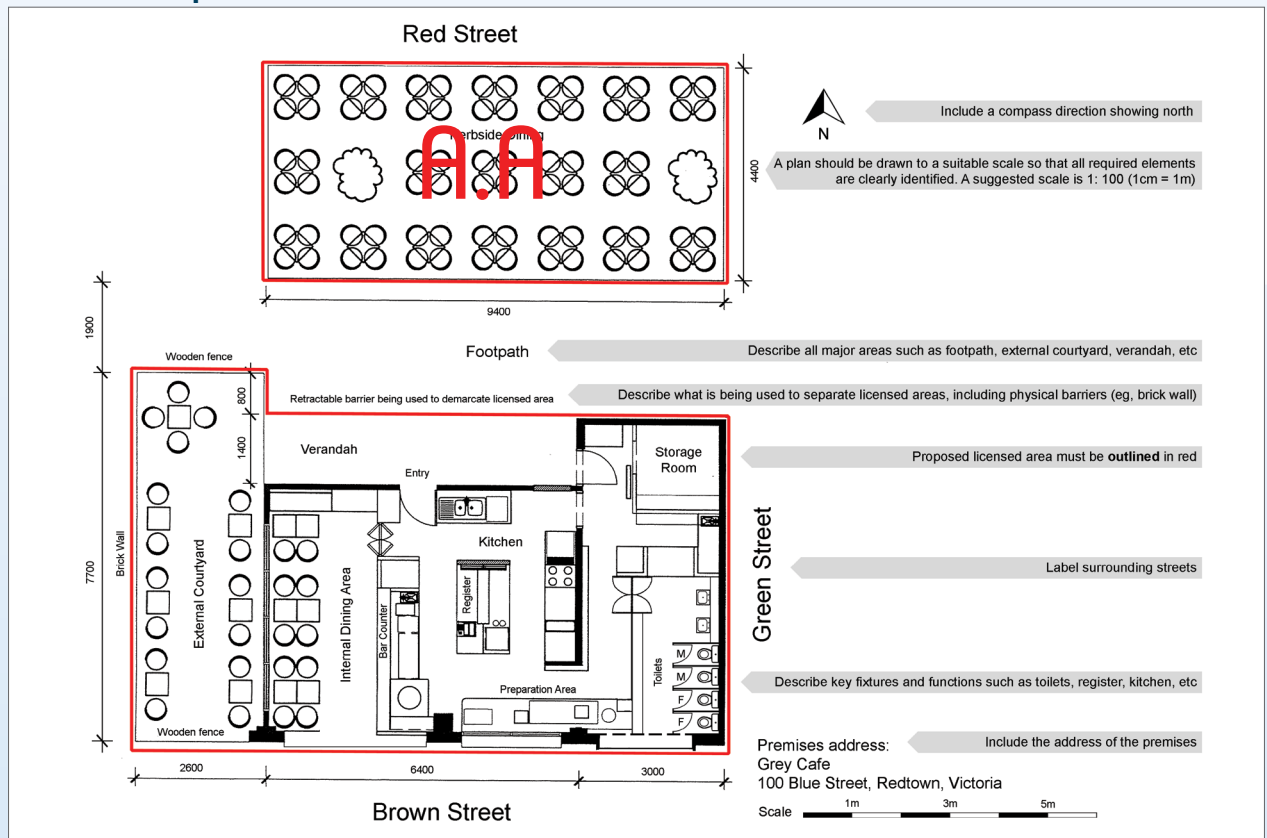

Failure to keep a copy of the plan on the licensed premises or produce a copy of the plan for inspection could result in a fine being issued.

Where can I get a copy of my approved plan?

If you do not have a copy of your approved plan, you can obtain a copy from the VCGLR at no extra cost.

An example of a plan is provided below.

Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation

Liquor licensing fact sheet

Maximum patron capacity

The Victorian Commission for Liquor and Gambling Regulation (VCGLR) has a maximum patron capacity policy that guides how patron capacity is determined for a liquor licence.

Maximum patron capacity is the maximum number of patrons allowed on a licensed premises at any one time. This is to prevent overcrowding inside the venue and to minimise impacts on local amenity. Patron capacity may be used to calculate the annual licence fee payable by each licensee.

Applicants will be required to provide specific documentation in order for the VCGLR to determine and endorse maximum patron capacity for a premises.

Under the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 (the Act) the VCGLR can set a maximum patron capacity as a condition of a liquor licence. This is enforceable, and penalties apply for licensees who do not comply.

This factsheet provides guidance as to how the VCGLR will determine maximum patron capacity for the purposes of the Act. It is the building owner's responsibility to ensure that building occupants comply with all other regulatory requirements.

Which licences have a maximum patron capacity?

Maximum patron capacity will be endorsed in respect of applications for the following new licences:

- general
- on-premises
- restaurant and cafe
- late night (on-premises and general)
- full club
- restricted club.

Some existing licences may also be endorsed with maximum patron capacities.

Maximum patron capacities may also be required on some major event licences where appropriate.

How does the VCGLR determine maximum patron capacity?

In the first instance, the VCGLR will determine maximum patron capacity based on the maximum patron capacity stated within the most recently issued planning permit provided with the application.

If the planning permit does not contain a maximum patron capacity, or if the planning permit has not been granted by the local council prior to the grant of the liquor licence, applicants are encouraged to contact their local council to obtain a copy of an occupancy permit. The VCGLR will then determine the maximum patron capacity based on the number stated on the occupancy permit.

In circumstances where neither the planning permit nor occupancy permit specify a maximum patron capacity, applicants are required to obtain a report from a registered building surveyor that states:

- the area in square metres available to the public for the whole of the internal premises (excluding toilets, passageways and the like) and (if applicable) for any external areas such as courtyards or decks, and
- the number of patrons that may be accommodated on the internal premises and (if applicable) on any external areas of the premises based on a ratio of one person per 0.75 square metres.

Please ensure that the report displays the building surveyor registration number.

Note: The VCGLR may request a building report from a registered building surveyor showing a calculation based on a ratio of one person per 0.75 square metres if the VCGLR considers that the capacity provided in the planning or occupancy permit is inaccurate or inappropriate. This may be requested in light of any information contained within the licence application and having regard to the objects of the Act.

Restaurant and cafe licences

For restaurant and cafe licences, tables and chairs must be available for at least 75 per cent of patrons. For example, if the licence states that maximum patron capacity is 100 patrons then there must be tables and chairs available for at least 75 patrons. Likewise, if there are tables and chairs available for only 50 patrons, a maximum of 66 patrons may be legally accommodated on the premises.

Patron capacity for specific areas

In addition to the overall maximum patron capacity for the licensed area, the VCGLR may set separate patron capacities on specific areas within a licensed area, such as:

- balconies
- terraces and courtyards
- beer gardens.

Patron capacities allocated for specific areas are calculated in accordance with the methods listed above, as well as amenity considerations.

While the VCGLR considers amenity as part of the patron number calculation, the relevant local council also retains responsibility for managing issues of amenity in each council region.

External areas

The overall maximum patron capacity for a licensed area is generally no larger than the maximum capacity allowed for the internal area of the premises.

This is to prevent overcrowding, and minimise sanitation and fire safety risks associated with patrons moving from outdoor to indoor areas, for example, to get a drink, to exit the premises or if it rains.

In some circumstances, the VCGLR may consider increasing the overall maximum patron capacity to allow for external areas.

Applicants with external licensed areas who wish to apply for this increase can submit a building report from a registered building surveyor demonstrating that fire safety and sanitation arrangements for the additional patrons will be met.

Features of an external area that may support an increase to the overall maximum patron capacity include:

- an external area that is large compared to the internal area, such as a large beer garden
- effective weather proofing
- separate entrances and exits
- separate facilities such as bars and toilets.

Function and accommodation areas

Function and accommodation areas may be excluded from the overall maximum patron capacity, and may be given their own separate capacity limits.

Training for liquor licence applicants

Training for licence applicants helps potential licensees to understand their obligations under the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998. Applicants must complete mandatory training requirements before a liquor licence is granted. There are three courses that applicants must complete depending on the licence type they are applying for. These are:

- A. New entrant training
