Attachment 1 – Historical organisational extract

Background

A historical organisational extract identifies the type, status, registered address, roles within the organisation, share structure, members and charges and documents lodged (current and historical) of organisations registered with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC).

When making a search application to ASIC, ensure that you specify that you require a historical organisational extract and not a current organisational extract. A historical organisational extract identifies both current and historical information about the applicant, while the current extract identifies only current information. If this application form is lodged with an extract other than an historical organisational extract it will be considered incomplete.

In addition, the historical organisational extract must have been issued within three months of the date of lodgement of this form. If you fail to meet any of these requirements (i.e. you do not provide a historical organisational extract or you enclose either a photocopied extract or an extract issued more than three months prior to the date of lodgement of this form) the application form will be considered incomplete.

All matters detailed in the applicant's historical organisational extract are taken into consideration by the Victorian Gambling and Casino Control Commission. Should you wish to dispute or amend any of the information disclosed in the applicant's historical organisational extract you should do so with ASIC prior to lodging your application.

Fee for searching ASIC databases

Fees are payable for searching ASIC databases. ASIC fees for on-line/telephone searches through brokers may differ from the fees charged at an ASIC business centre. Information brokers, however, may charge a service delivery fee in addition to the ASIC fee. The delivery fee may vary between brokers. ASIC does not regulate the amount of broker delivery fees.

ASIC can advise you of the cost of obtaining a historical organisational extract.

How to apply for your historical organisational extract

A historical organisational extract can be obtained from ASIC. You may also contact ASIC's Infoline or refer to the ASIC website to obtain details of regional ASIC business centres and ASIC representatives, or information brokers.

The applicant is advised to consult with its accountant or auditor to ensure that a true and correct summary of financial information is provided.

The VGCCC may subsequently request audited financial statements be submitted in the event that this summary is found to be incomplete, incorrect or misleading.
